Read the following passage then answer the questions

Regrets

My name's Jack and I want to tell you about something I regret. It happened over twenty years ago. I must have been around five years old. It was a summer day and I was in a park playing with some other kids from the neighborhood. There was a boy there named Jeremy who I didn't like very much, but I can't remember why. Anyway, we were playing near a pond. The water was very dirty and it was full of weeds and slime. You can guess what I did, right…? I waited until he was standing near the edge of the pond, and then I crept up behind him and gave him a good hard push in the back. He went flying straight into the filthy, slimy water! His dad rushed over and pulled him out. Jeremy was crying and pointed at me, saying "It was him. He pushed me!" Of course, I denied it. My parents were there, but I insisted I was innocent and without any proof they took my side. The bad thing is that Jeremy's parents and mine used to be good friends, but after that they never spoke to each other again. I should have told my parents the truth, but I didn't. To this day, I still regret pushing that boy into the pond

A) Answer the following questions:

Read the following passage then answer the questions

Water

Water is life and the lack of water means death. Any living thing cannot go on living without water. Plants need water to grow. Animals need water to drink. People need water to drink and to use in cleaning, cooking, farming and irrigating their lands. We can get water from rivers and lakes. But the main source of water is the rain. In the desert, people dig deep wells to get water. For keeping water from being wasted, people build dams for storing water in reservoirs that form behind the dams. Water is stored in water towers that supply all the houses with pure water. Our government has set up desalination plants for treating seawater and removing the salt. Thanks be to God, the Merciful, who has created water for us. We don't need to pay for it as it is neither sold nor bought.

A) Answer the following questions:

1. What does the lack of water mean? ---.
